

Friday, February 2

9:00 - Main building (KOL-F-117)

Keynote IV: Prof. Dr. Annette Becker (Université de Paris Nanterre): The Ordeal of Civilians in a Globalized World

10:00 - Panel IX: Religion and Diplomacy.

Chair: Dr. Gleb J. Albert (University of Zurich)

- Christoph Valentin (University of Münster): Between humanitarianism and own political interests. The politics of the Holy See during the First World War
- Dr. Maik Schmerbauch (University of Frankfurt): The Catholic Church and the German Revolution 1918-1919 in the view of the catholic press
- Joanna Simonow (ETH Zurich): Missionary Networks and the Global Response to Famine in India in the Wake of the First World War, c.1918-1925
- Dr. Martin Arndt (University of Zagreb): Jews between the Frontlines

11:20 - Panel X: From War to peace.

Chair: Dr. Steve Marti (Ontario, Canada)

- Dr. Jasper M. Trautsch (University of Regensburg): The Significance of the First World War for the Conceptual History of the West
- Lukasz Mieszkowski (Imre Kertész Kolleg Jena): A Foreign Lady – The Polish Episode in the influenza pandemic of 1918
- Radhika Singha (Jawaharlal Nehru University, Delhi): Terminating the war, conserving its trace: India 1918 – 1921
- Dr. Ángel Alcalde (Center for the History of Global Development, Shanghai University): War Veterans as transnational actors – Veterans “Internationalisms” after World War I.
- Michaela Oberreiter (University of Vienna): The state structure of the Western Ukrainian People’s Republic and the Austrian legal heritage

12:40 Lunch at Cafeteria of the University

14:00 - Keynote V: Prof. Dr. Hans-Lukas Kieser (University of Newcastle and Zurich): “Istanbul in the 1910s: A Hub of Diplomacy and Global Conflict”

15:00 - Panel XI: The Global Middle East – From Sideshow to Violent Epicenter.

Chair: Prof. Dr. Hans-Lukas Kieser (University of Newcastle and Zurich)

- Remzi Cagatay Cakirlar (Leiden University): Édouard Herriot, a vanguard French Radical endorsing the Young Turks’ cause at the Dawn of the Great War

- Dr. Jonathan Krause (King’s College, London - University of Oxford): The Global Anticolonial Backlash, 1916-17
- Carl-Leo Graf von Hohenthal (University of Freiburg): Ireland in Palestine? Jews, Arabs, Britons and new perspectives on the fight for the future of Mandate Palestine
- Simona Berhe (University of Milan): From Colonial War to World War – Lybia during the First World War
- Sebastian Willert (TU Berlin): Cultural Imperialism versus Protectionism? On the role of the Deutsch-türkische Denkmalschutz-Kommando during the First World War

17:10 - Panel XII: A New Order – International Law and International Relations.

Chair: Dr. Michael Auwers (University of Antwerp)

- Arno Barth (Germany, Independent): „Nothing should be left to chance“ – Regulatory Models of Western Peace Planning
- Dr. Aimé Raoul Sumo Tayo (Université de Yaoundé I, Cameroun): Finir un conflit: les modalités de sortie de guerre en Afrique pendant la Première Guerre Mondiale
- Dr. Jan Pajor (University of Lodz): The United States and China’s entry into WWI
- Prof. Dr. Michael Neiberg (US Army War College): America’s Road to War, 1914-1917

Final Comments and Discussion

Optional dinner in the Old Town with city tour

PRACTICAL INFORMATION

Location: University of Zurich (UZH)

University of Zurich, Main Building,
Rämistrasse 71
Rooms KOL-F-101, KOL-F-104 or KOL-F-117

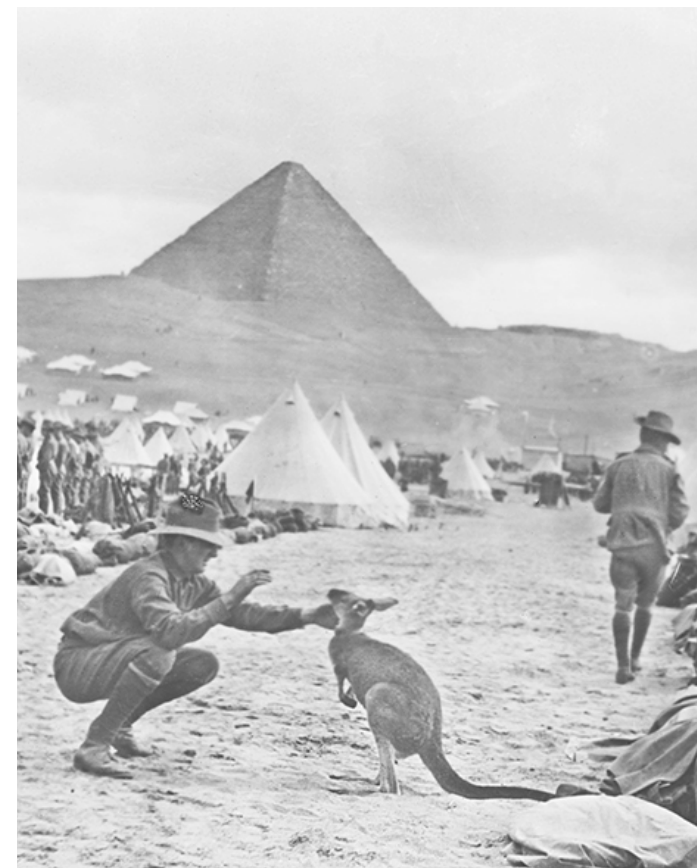

Dates: 31.01.2018 - 02.02.2018

Contact: global.war.conference@gmail.com

Universität
Zürich ^{UZH}

GLOBAL WAR GLOBAL MOMENTS GLOBAL CONNECTIONS

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE

University of Zurich

31.01.2018 – 02.02.2018

Wednesday, January 31

08:40: Registration (University of Zurich, Main Building, Room KOL-F-104, first floor) - Conference Opening by Thomas Schmutz and Gwendal Piégais

09:15 - Panel I: Global Connections in Wartime.

Chair: Dr. Konstantinos Karatzas (Research Fellow, Institute of International Economic Relations, Greece; London Center for Interdisciplinary Research)

- Dr. Martin Deuerlein (University of Tübingen): Global War, International Relations and the Question of Order in an Interdependent World
- Dr. Steve Marti (Independent Scholar, Ontario, Canada): Dominion Over Empire: Race and Recruitment in Britain's Settler Colonies
- Dr. Francesca Piana (University of Zurich): An Endless War: Performing Gender in International Relief, 1914-1923
- Dr. Daniel Palmieri (Red Cross Archive, Geneva): Humanitarianism in Global War: The International Committee of the Red Cross in WWI

11:20 Young Researcher Presentation: Adam Ohnesorge (University of Zurich): The forgotten civilian prisoners and Swiss peace mission in Corsica during the Great War

11:45 - Panel II: A question of perspective - Soundscapes and Time Frames.

Chair: Matthew Kovac (University of Oxford)

- Dr. Yaron Jean (Sapir College, Negev, Israel): The Sounds of the Invisible: Warfare Technology, Obliteration and Global Wars
- Sarah Laufs (Heinrich-Heine-University Düsseldorf): Rethinking the Time-Frames of the Great War – Ruptures, Continuities and German Wartime Experiences

12:20 Lunch

13:40 - Panel III: Global Switzerland.

Chair: Dr. Adrian Hänni (Distance Learning University of Switzerland)

- Dr. Peter Fleer (Swiss Federal Archives, Berne): Archives and Issues of the First World War – Doing Research in the Swiss Federal Archives
- PD Dr. Daniel Marc Segesser (University of Bern): From Bregenz via Turkestan to Solothurn: Military Migration in the First World War in transnational Perspective
- Dr. Michael Olsansky (MILAK ETH): Between Military Diplomacy and Transnational Military Exchange: Swiss Officers in the Theaters of War of the First World War
- Nina Flurina Caprez (University of Fribourg): "When peace was difficult" - What the history of a monastery tells about World War I and its aftermath

15:50 - Panel IV: Migration in Wartime.

Chair: Dr. Jonathan Krause (King's College, London - University of Oxford)

- Prof. Dr. Christian Koller (University of Zurich; Sozialarchiv): Intercontinental War Migration of French and British Colonial Troops
- Maria Ines Tato (CONICET - University of Buenos Aires - RavignaniInstitute / Superior School of War - Faculty of the Army - University of National Defense): Transnational solidarities: Immigrant communities in Argentina facing the Great War

- Dr. Konstantinos Karatzas (Research Fellow, Institute of International Economic Relations, Greece; London Center for Interdisciplinary Research): The Greek perspective: Migration, Imperial Dreams and Tragedy
- Dr. Shuang Wen (National University of Singapore): From Moral to Morale: The YMCA and the Chinese-Arab Laboureres in WWI

17:20 Break and Swiss Dinner

18:45 Keynote and Roundtable (History of Violence) - UZH Main Building, Room F-101

Opening Remarks by Dean Prof. Dr. Klaus Jonas (Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences, University of Zurich)

19:00 Keynote I Prof. Dr. Christian Gerlach (University of Bern): World War I within a global history of mass violence in the first third of the 20th century

19. 45 Roundtable. Chair: Prof. Dr. Philip Dwyer (Director of the Centre for the History of Violence at the University of Newcastle, Australia): Mass Violence in the Beginning of the 20th century with Prof. Dr. Annette Becker (University of Nanterre, Paris), Prof. Dr. Christian Gerlach (University of Bern), Prof. Dr. Hans-Lukas Kieser (University of Newcastle, Australia, and Zurich), Dr. Mark Jones (University College Dublin, Centre for War Studies)

Thursday, February 1

8:30 - Registration for newcomers. Main building (KOL-F-117)

8:45 - Panel V: Networks, Intelligence and Secret Diplomacy.

Chair: Dr. Adrian Hänni (Distance Learning University of Switzerland)

- Matthew Kovac (University of Oxford): Traitors to the Crown: British Military Veterans in the IRA, 1918-1923
- Samuel Krug (FU Berlin): A global network for a global revolution? Transnational connections of German WWI propaganda
- Dr. Christian Stachelbeck (Zentrum für Militärgeschichte und Sozialwissenschaften der Bundeswehr): Shadowman or Bureaucrat in uniform – Walter Nicolai and the German military intelligence service in WWI
- Jacopo Lorenzini (Istituto Italiano per gli Studi Storici, Naples): Military élites go to war: a global perspective

10:50 - Panel VI: Alliance, Loyalty and Intervention.

Chair: Dr. Gabriela Frei (Oxford)

- Sam Klein (University of St. Andrews): Coalition Politics and the Preparations for the Coup de Grâce
- Dr. William Thomas Allison (Georgia Southern University, USA): With Arms or Food? A Local View on the American Decision to Intervene in North Russia, 1918
- Dr. Takuma Melber (University of Heidelberg): "Alle Menschen werden Brüder" - German soldiers in Japanese war captivity and the First World War in Far East

- Tomáš Kykal (Military History Institute, Prague): Conflict of Conscience and Duty - Czechs in the First World War
- Aliaksandr Piahnanau (University of Toulouse): A separate peace with Hungary? The Magyar peace feelers at the beginning of WWI (1914-1915)

12:00 Lunch

13:30 - Panel VII: Transnational commemoration.

Chair: Dr. Daniel Marc Segesser (University of Bern)

- Karla Vanraepenbusch (Université catholique de Louvain): Le Mémorial interallié, un 'mémorial de la paix' qui exprime cependant un refus de démobiliser les esprits)
- Stefan Kurz (HGM, University of Vienna): A common museum for a common army beyond the nation? The 'k.u.k. Heeresmuseum' in Vienna and its claim to represent a supranational Austro-Hungarian view on the First World War
- Prof. Dr. Georgi Verbeeck (Maastricht University and University of Leuven): Remembering the First World War in Belgium - From National to Global Perspectives
- Anna Isaieva (Kyiv-Mohyla Academy, Kiev): Visual representation of colonial troops in British and French commemoration projects of the Centennial of the Great War
- Mateusz Mazzini (Polish Academy of Sciences): The 100 years of Today. Poland's WWI commemorations and the meta-memory of independence

15:50 - Keynote II: Prof. Dr. Maartje Abbenhuis (University of Auckland): Global war, global Switzerland: Neutrals at the heart of the First World War - KOL-F-101

17:00 - Panel VIII: Neutrality and Diplomacy in the Global War.

Chair: Dr. Philip Dwyer (University of Newcastle)

- Dr. Michael Auwers (University of Antwerp): Away with Neutrality. The 'Colonial' Coup of Belgian Diplomacy during the First World War
- Elisabeth Marie Piller (Norwegian University of Science and Technology): The Great War and the Power of Neutrality: The Commission for Relief in Belgium and the Global Public 'Conscience'
- Annalise Higgins (Trinity College, Cambridge): The international status of interoceanic canals after the First World War

18:40 - Keynote III: Prof. Dr. Harald Fischer-Tiné (ETH Zurich): Cheering up Soldiers, educating Civilians: The transnational Activities of the Indian YMCA during the Great War(1914-1920)

19:30 Conference dinner (optional) in the Old Town